In exercise of the powers conferred by section 5 of the Prince of Wales Museum Act, 1909 (III of 1909), the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules:—

PRINCE OF WALES MUSEUM OF WESTERN INDIA.

Rules for the purposes of section 5 of Act III of 1909.

1. The following provisions shall be observed with respect to the Meetings of the Board, namely:— Board's Meetings.

(a) The Board shall meet together at least once in every 6 months.

(b) At the first Meeting in each official year the Board shall appoint a Chairman from among their number.

(c) The Chairman may, when he thinks fit, and shall, upon the written request of at least two Trustees, call a Special Meeting.

(d) The Meeting shall be convened by the Secretary, who shall send to each member, not later than the day previous to a Meeting, the list of business, and no business not entered on such list shall be transacted without the consent of the Meeting. In the case of members not residing in Bombay notice of the business should reach them in time to permit of their attending the Meeting.

(e) No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless at least four Trustees are present from the beginning to the end of such meeting: provided that if in consequence of the operation of this sub-rule a meeting is adjourned, the quorum required by the said sub-rule shall not be necessary for the transaction of business at such adjourned meeting. But no business shall be brought before such adjourned meeting other than that which was in the agenda of the meeting which was postponed for want of a quorum.

(f) Every Meeting shall, if the Chairman is present, be presided over by him; if he be absent, by any one of the Trustees present who may be chosen by the Meeting.

(g) The minutes of the previous Meeting shall be previously circulated and be taken as read, unless the majority of the members present request that such minutes be read.

(h) If any member present draws the attention of the Chairman to any portion of the minutes of the previous Meeting as being erroneously entered in the Minute Book, such amendment as to the Chairman may seem proper shall be made before the minutes are signed.

(i) The business before a Meeting of the Board shall, ordinarily be discussed informally. But if in the interests of order it appears desirable to discuss any particular question in a formal manner, the Chairman may, with the consent of the Meeting, direct that the discussion of this question be formal. In such case a motion or amendment must be duly proposed and seconded, after which alone it will be before the Meeting for discussion. A Trustee, having spoken to a motion or amendment, is not at liberty to speak again to such motion or amendment : provided that the movers of the amendment and the original motion shall have a right of reply in the order named, immediately after which the motion or amendment shall be put to the vote in the manner prescribed in clause (k).

(j) All remarks must be addressed to the Chairman.

(k) When a motion has been put to the meeting, any mamber may propose an amendment. An amendment to an amendment may be proposed. Amendments, whether to a motion or to an amendment, shall be put to the vote either in the reverse order in which they have been moved or in the order in which they affect the motion, whichever method may be adopted by the Chairman at his discretion.

In the event of an amendment being carried, all other amendments, together with the original motion, shall fall to the ground and the amendment so carried shall then be submitted to the meeting as a substantive motion ; amendments to the motion so submitted may be proposed and dealt with as above. This procedure shall be continued until an amendment which has been carried as such is put to the vote and carried as a substantive motion.

(l) The consideration of any particular item in the list of business of which three days' notice has not been given shall, at the request of any two members of the Board made before discussion thereon begins, either orally or, if absent, by letter, be postponed until the next Meeting.

(m) Written speeches shall not be read.

(n) Every motion and amendment shall be submitted in writing to the Chairman. The Chairman shall have power to divide into two or more distinct propositions any motion or amendment which, in his opinion, is so complicated as to be likely to lead to confusion or inconvenience be being voted upon as one proposition.

(o) All questions shall be decided by a majority of votes of the Trustees present, the President having a second or casting vote in all cases of equality of votes.

(p) If a poll be demanded, the names of the Trustees voting and the nature of their votes shall be recorded by the President.

(q) The Chairman shall decide summarily all points of order or procedure.

(r) If at any time it appears to any Trustee that the language used by a member is improper, he may move that the member should no longer be heard. On such a motion being seconded, it shall be put to the Meeting by the Chairman without discussion, and if two-thirds of the members present vote in favour of it, such member shall not be allowed to address the Meeting any further on the subject.

(s) Minutes shall be kept of the names of the Trustees present and of the proceedings of each Meeting in a book to be provided for this purpose, which shall be signed at the next ensuing Meeting by the President of such Meeting and shall be opened to inspection by any Trustee during office hours.

2. The Trustees may, from time to time, appoint Committees, to consist of any member or members of their body, for carrying out the purposes of the Act, and may delegate any of their powers, either with or without restriction or limitation, to such Committees and may revoke any such appointment or extend, vary, modify or annul any delegation made or any restriction or limitation imposed.

Committees.

3. The Trustees may, from time to time, make such regulations and give such directions as to the Trustees may seem expedient regarding—

(a) the exercise by any Committees appointed by the Trustees in pursuance of these rules of the powers delegated to such Committees ;

(b) the conduct of business entrusted to any such Committees ;

(c) the appointment by such Committees of any Sub-committees, to consist of any member or memebers of their own body, for the purpose of conducting or facilitating the conduct of the business entrusted to such Committees ;

(d) the employment by such Committees of professional or other expert persons to advise or assist such Committees upon any question arising in connection with the exercise of the powers delegated to such Committees and the terms and condition of such employment ;

(e) the holding of Meetings by any Committees appointed by the Trustees in pursuance of these rules ;

(f) the procedure to be observed in the convening and holding of Meetings of any Committees so appointed ;

(g) the conduct of business at such meetings ;

(h) the management, investment or expenditure of funds, and the keeping and rendering of accounts by any Committees appointed by the Trustees in pursuance of these rules ;

(i) the making of reports by any Committees so appointed ; and

(j) all matters in respect of which any power shall be delegated to or vested in any such Committees.

4. All Committees appointed by the Trustees in pursuance of these rules shall, in the exercise of the powers delegated and in the conduct of matters entrusted to them and in their proceedings, conform to the regulations made and directions given by the Trustees in the manner aforesaid.

5. No delegation made to any Committee in pursuance of these rules shall operate to prevent the Trustees from acting in the exercise of any power so delegated.

6. The Trustees shall keep accounts of all moneys received and expended by them, and shall cause such accounts to be audited annually by the Accountant-General, Bombay, and an abstract of such accounts, together with the Auditor's certificate thereon, shall be published for general information.
